WW1

The 100th anniversary of the end of WW1 is coming up. November 11th falls on a Sunday. As part of our efforts to mark the occasion it has been suggested we make poppies to sell, or decorate the church. Patterns are available for those wishing to knit or crochet poppies. This gives plenty of time for creation of poppies.

Did you know? Gluten free Communion wafers are available in both our churches at all our Eucharist services. If you, or someone you meet, needs one, please let the sidespersons or minister know before the service starts.

All Hall activity cancelled 9th to 16th July

From Monday 9th July both halls will be out of action as the large hall floor is being sanded and lacquered that week. The small hall will be closed for safety. The sanding will not take long but it will need a few days to settle after completion.

Coffee after 11am Service will be in the small hall.
